If you do not have a will or trust, we recommend an initial consultation with an attorney to advise you regarding the best estate plan to protect your assets and your loved ones. If you have already created an estate plan, it may be time for us to perform a simple review to make sure that no adjustments are needed based on changes in your personal circumstances.

At Lavelle Law, Ltd., we understand that estate planning is not something that most people look forward to. However, if you knew something harmful was about to happen to your family, wouldn't you act to protect them? That is what estate planning is all about. Your decision today protects them tomorrow. Don't allow outdated wills or trusts - or worse, a lack of appropriate plans - leave your family and business unprotected when they are most vulnerable.

Let the experienced and friendly estate planning attorneys at Lavelle Law, Ltd., take you comfortably through the estate planning process to ensure that your family and assets are protected.
